

Menzies Cambridgeshire Golf Club Membership Terms and Conditions

Golf Club

The Club is operated by Menzies Hotels Operating Limited (the Company).

It is a condition of acceptance of membership that the member agrees to pay the joining fee where applicable and agrees to be bound by the Membership Terms and Conditions.

Payments

Can be in full by cheque, cash, credit card or by monthly Direct Debit for which an administration charge may be made.

The member agrees to maintain membership for the 12 months commencing on the date the membership application is approved and unless cancelled in writing, the member will continue membership for the next twelve months and every anniversary thereafter (the Membership Period). In the event of the member terminating membership the member is liable to pay for any outstanding subscriptions that may be due within the Membership Period.

All Joining fees, subscriptions, Levy and other receipts shall become the property of the Company. If membership is cancelled or terminated the Company will make no refund in respect of any monies paid.

Membership

The Company reserves the right to reject any application for membership of the Club without giving any reason. The membership is personal to the member or corporate body at the location for which membership is granted and cannot be transferred.

The Company may assign the benefit of this agreement to any person, firm or company at any time without notice to the member.

The club offers the following types of membership:-

Individual Membership

Available to any individual of at least 18 years of age. An individual member is entitled to full use of the course at any time subject to availability of tee times.

Joint Membership

Available to Couples of at least 18 years of age who must be domiciled at the same address. Joint members are each entitled to full use of the course at any time subject to availability of tee times.

Corporate Membership

Corporate membership is available as a four ball. Corporate membership must be in the name of a company and can be used by any authorised person producing a membership card to use of the course at any time subject to the availability of tee times. The company will be issued four membership cards and the security of the membership cards is the responsibility of the company. Three guests may play with the authorised person at no charge on a four ball corporate membership. Only one corporate membership card holder may be on the course at any one time. Corporate members are not allowed to play in competitions.

Four ball corporate members are entitled to a £400 discount on one golf day for a minimum of 24 golfers booked at the published price. This discount may be applied once at any of the Company's Golf Clubs.

Junior Membership

Junior membership is available to children aged between 11 and 17 years of age at the time of joining who may have full use of the course subject to availability of tee times.

Acorn Membership

Acorn membership is available to children of an adult member aged between 7 and 10 years of age at the time of joining and may play golf Monday to Friday inclusive or after 4pm Saturday, Sunday and Bank Holidays. Acorn members must be accompanied by an adult at all times and tee times subject to availability can only be booked seven days in advance.

Fees

An initial joining fee (corporate and junior membership excepted) and monthly membership charge shall be payable for each class of membership which will be reviewed annually.

Admission

Every member shall be issued with a membership card and golf bag tag. Members must present their card on each visit to the Club and display their golf tag when out on the golf course. A charge will be made for replacement of lost membership cards and tags.

Termination

BY THE COMPANY

Without notice in the event of such member committing a serious or repeated breach of the Club Terms and Conditions as may be amended from time to time.

By notice in writing if any payment owing to the Club by the member remains unpaid 30 days after the due date for payment.

Upon not less than 30 days notice in writing if the Company believes that the membership is not suitable for continued membership of the Club. There is no obligation on the Company to give a reason for such a decision.

BY A MEMBER

The membership of any member may be terminated, notwithstanding the Company's entitlement to receive payment for outstanding subscriptions that may be due in the current Membership Period

Membership is for a 12 month period and termination of the membership must be given in writing to the Club at least 30 days prior to the annual renewal date.

Change of address, telephone or bank details if payment is made by direct debit should be given in writing to the Club.

Members Guests & Visitors

Member's guests must always be accompanied by the member introducing them who will then be responsible for the guest's actions and safety whilst playing golf or within the Club's premises.

A member may introduce up to three guests, who will be charged the members guest rate as appropriate. The same guest however may not play more than twice in any one calendar month whether the introduction is by one member or by different members.

There are limited times when Visitors (not guests of full members) are permitted to play. Visitors are generally not permitted to play at weekends.

The Club may refuse any guest from using the Club without giving any reason. The members guest and Visitor charges together with admission hours may vary from time to time.

Menzies Cambridgeshire Golf Club Membership Terms and Conditions - Continued

Dress

Appropriate dress must be worn at all times within the club and on the course, which complies with the dress code, which is displayed on the golf shop notice board. It is a condition of the Club that soft spikes are to be worn.

Course Closure

There will be occasions when play is not possible due to corporate or society days taking place. On such occasions no refunds or allowances will be made against memberships.

Reservations

Individual members may only reserve a tee time 14 days in advance. Corporate members may reserve tee times 21 days in advance except on Saturdays and Sundays and bank holidays, which can only be reserved 14 days in advance. All bookings of tee times are strictly subject to availability.

All members must report to the Clubhouse before commencing play in order that their individual identity card can be verified and a green ticket issued. Without the same the member holder and their guests will not be permitted to play.

Cancellations

Cancellations must be advised to the Clubhouse no later than 24 hours before the tee time reserved. The Company reserves the right to charge for tee times booked and not utilised by members, including any reduction in numbers in a tee time.

There will be occasions at busy times when single players cannot book tee time.

Conduct of Members

Members and guests are expected to behave in a manner appropriate for a high quality golf club and respect the etiquette of golf.

Golfers are under a duty to take reasonable care to avoid causing injury to other golfers and members of the public. Golfers may be liable for any damage caused to surrounding property.

Any incident of injury or damage caused must be reported to the clubhouse immediately.

General

The Clubhouse is available to the use of members, their guests and visitors. The lockers in the respective changing areas will be cleared each evening. Members are not permitted to store golf clubs or other items overnight.

Mobile phones are not to be used on the course, but may be used in the Clubhouse, respecting of course other members and guests.

The driving range is only available to members, their guests if playing a round of golf, visitors playing golf, hotel residents and pupils of the golf professional.

Handicap

Any member who wishes to receive a handicap must play at least three rounds of eighteen holes with another golfer with an official handicap and submit the completed cards together with the accompanying golfers handicap certificate to the PGA golf professional in the Clubhouse.

Liability

The Company accepts no liability whatsoever for accident, injury, misadventure. All members and their guests and visitors are responsible for making their own insurance arrangements in respect of injury suffered or caused by them, or caused to them by any third party.

The Company does not accept liability or responsibility for the loss of or damage to property or motor vehicles belonging to any member, their guests and visitors.

Each member is responsible for making their guests aware of the Club's Terms and Conditions, golf course etiquette and ensuring that their guests are aware of their own insurance liability.

Other

The hours during which the Club is open for use by members are shown to members on joining which may change from time to time or for bank holidays, maintenance or ground works.

The Company will use its reasonable endeavours to ensure that the golf course is available for use by members during such time as the golf course may be open, but there may be occasions when the course may not be available for reasons beyond the control of the Company, occasions when it is considered dangerous to play or when the weather is such that damage could be incurred to the course.

Any dispute or difference, which may arise in regard to the interpretation of these rules, shall be determined by the Company whose decision shall be final.

The Company reserves the right to vary, revoke or add to these Terms and Conditions from time to time as its absolute discretion.

The failure of the Company to enforce any of its rights at any time for any period shall not be construed as a waiver of such rights.
