The Hotel

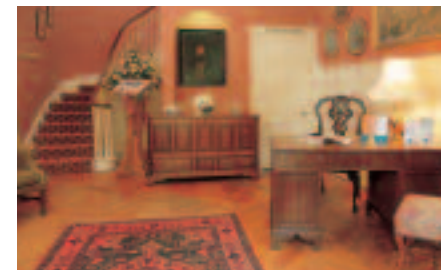

Nestling in the tranquillity of acres of rolling gardens and wooded parkland the Menzies Flitwick Manor is a true country house hotel.

Located near the historic village of Woburn, only 2 miles from junction 12 of the M1 and five minutes from Flitwick railway station, this classical 17th century house continues its ancestral traditions of hospitality.

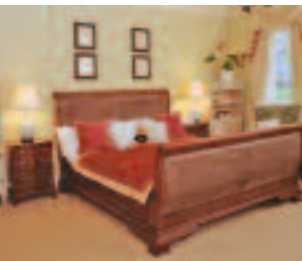

The hotel's award winning a la carte restaurant offers a tempting menu, combining the very best British dishes and continental cuisine, using only the finest ingredients and seasonal produce.

For private functions or executive meetings, the Menzies Flitwick Manor offers three charming function suites, the Morning Room, the Library and the Brooks Room, ideal for elegant, private functions or executive meetings.

In addition to the helicopter landing pad there is a croquet lawn and tennis court.
